

Julie Buss

Hometown/Other places I have lived: Wausau, Green Bay, San Antonio

Children/Grandchildren:

Education/Career Experiences: Bachelor's in Journalism from UW- Eau Claire, worked as a news assignment editor in Wausau, Green Bay and San Antonio and in Public Relations in Madison

Membership in other organizations/Volunteer work: St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in Montana in various capacities, including Ministry Board (Council), choir and several committees.

Hobbies: Journaling, genealogy, playing piano

Family members in P.E.O. (past and present): Aunt Amy Nickles

Officer positions held:

"What P.E.O. means to me": Although I've only been a P.E.O. sister for a short time, I already feel the genuine warmth and caring from my fellow sisters. P.E.O. provides the opportunity to form meaningful bonds, support the education of women and expand my knowledge through interesting speakers. It is simply the best of all possible worlds.